REGULAR BOARD MEETING CONTINUED

Principal Mr. Determan reported that the elementary concert was on December 5th and that it was well attended. David Biggins, a 3rd grader, participated in the Junior World Championship for the Junior Roughstock Association in the bareback division in Las Vegas on December 5th and 7th. Biggins did not make the finals, but the school was watching and cheering for him. Keeley Klein, Christian Spann, and Salma Serr participated at the state oral interp contest in Yankton on December 6th and 7th. Salma received a superior in the category of humorous. Keeley and Christian were close to receiving superiors in the pieces that they presented in the categories of serious for Keeley, storytelling for Christian, and a duet including both Keeley and Christian. The 6th-12th grade holiday concert is December 9th at 7:00 at the auditorium. The middle school girls basketball season will end on December 13th. Middle school wrestling will host its invitation on December 16th and that is the last event of the season. High school wrestling started the season off at the Stanley County Invitational, in which the team won. The wrestling season will continue with a match at home on December 12th and then hosting the Gregory Invitational on December 14th. The elementary is having its Fun Friday event on December 13th. The 6th grade class as well as several local businesses are helping to put on the event. Girls and boys basketball start the season by hosting Mount Vernon/Plankinton on December 13th. The annual elementary shopping day is going to be on December 16th. The elementary holiday open house will be on December 19th from 1:00-2:00 in the elementary classrooms. On December 20th, the elementary will be watching a movie at the Hipp Theater. Semester test for middle and high school students will be on December 19th and 20th. Classes will resume on January 6th.

Superintendent Mrs. Anderson stated that the board received a copy of the audit and will look to approve it at the January board meeting. Anderson attended the superintendents meeting in Chamberlain on December 4th. At the meeting there was a lot of discussion pertaining to Governor Noem's budget proposal. Mrs. Anderson is reaching out to the legislators to invite them for a special meeting on December 18th at noon to discuss the upcoming legislative session. There have been a couple of applicants for the advertised food service position, but have not hired anyone for the position. The school had a fundraiser for Isaac Schulte, which raised around $600.00 for the family.

Dave Shoemaker reported on Mid-Central Cooperative that at the last meeting, bills were paid.

Karen Timanus reported on CORE Cooperative that hail damage repairs and the Edgenuity Contract for Virtual School were approved. A couple of policies were discussed, but no action was taken.
